

Education-oriented Webinar Series:

How should universities internally embrace and apply SDGs to their teachings and research?

Invited Speaker:

Prof. Paul Jagals (University of Queensland, Australia)

Date & time:

Jan. 12 (Wed.) 2022, 18:15 to 19:45 (LIVE)

Description: Universities are uniquely placed to lead the cross-sectoral implementation of the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), providing an invaluable source of expertise in research and education on all sectors that are implied of the SDGs. This webinar would be useful for students, researchers, and faculty members to know how they can contribute to the implementation of SDGs in our university.

Bio: Prof. Jagals is Professor of Environmental Health and Director of WHO Collaborating Center in the Child Health Research Center, Faculty of Medicine, The University of Queensland. The overall goal with his research and teaching activities is to improve practical application and decision-making for delivering more efficient Environmental Health Services and Solutions to communities.
