

Education-oriented Webinar Series (2):

The role of universities to support society towards SDG

Invited Speaker:

Prof. Paul Jagals (University of Queensland, Australia)

Date & time:

Jan. 18 (Wed.) 2023, 18:15 to 19:45 (LIVE)

Description: Universities are uniquely placed to be thought leaders supporting the cross-sectoral implementation of the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), providing an invaluable source of expertise in research and education on all sectors of society. This webinar would be useful for students, researchers, and faculty members to know how they could contribute to society through the SDGs.

Bio: Prof. Jagals is Professor of Environmental Health and Director of WHO Collaborating Center in the Child Health Research Center, Faculty of Medicine, The University of Queensland. The overall goal with his research and teaching activities is to improve practical application and decision-making for delivering more efficient Environmental Health Services and Solutions to communities.
